Apprenticeships & Traineeships

Apprenticeships and Traineeships - FAQ's

Australian Apprenticeships (often referred to as Apprenticeships or Traineeships) are a great way to earn an income while learning new skills. They are available to anyone of working age (15-64 years) enabling you to combine work with study and are available in over 500 different occupations. As an Australian Apprentice you can:

- Earn an income while you study
- Gain hands-on work experience
- Get a nationally recognised qualification that is held in high regard in many overseas countries
- Be debt free (no HECS-HELP or FEE-HELP debt).

You can even begin your Australian Apprenticeship while you're still at school, through an Australian School-based Apprenticeship. Click here for the answers to the following questions:

- How much does it pay?
- What kind of jobs do apprenticeships and traineeships cover?
- How long does an Australian Apprenticeship take?
- Need more information?
- Is there a guide to starting an apprenticeship?
- Is there a support network provider who can help?

Benefits of an apprenticeship pathway

In today's changing world of work, Australia needs a capable, skilled and adaptive workforce. According to The Good Universities Guide there are five advantages of apprenticeships and traineeships such as:

- You earn while you learn
- You can choose from a wide variety of interests
- Training is flexible
- You will receive a nationally recognised qualification
- You can start them at school

Post school options - Apprenticeships

Apprenticeships offer nationally recognised qualifications and pathways to over 500 occupations across Australia, from traditional trades to new and emerging occupations. You can explore the many options available by clicking on the links below:

Values can help career decision making

Our 'values' shape the career choices we make, but what exactly are values and how can you identify the values that are important to you and that will positively impact your career? Below are some values that may influence your career choices. Ask yourself, which of the following values are important to you and are there any you want to add:

- Adventurous: To be adventurous; to actively seek, create, or explore novel or stimulating experiences
- Assertiveness: To respectfully stand up for my rights and request what I want
- Authenticness: To be authentic, genuine, real, be true to myself
- Caring: To be caring towards myself, others, the environment
- Challenging: To keep challenging myself to grow, learn, improve
- Cooperative: To be cooperative and collaborative with others
- Creativeness: To be creative or innovative
- Curiousness: To be curious, open-minded and interested; to explore and discover
- Fairness: To be fair to myself and others
- Humourous: To see and appreciate the funny side of life
- Independence: To be self-supportive, and choose my own way of doing things
- Open-mindedness: To see things through/from other's points of view, and weigh evidence fairly
- Power: To strongly influence or wield authority over others, e.g. taking charge, leading, organising
- Respectfulness: To be respectful towards myself or others; to be polite and show positive regard for others
- Self-development: To keep growing, advancing or improving in knowledge, skills, character, or life experience
- Supportiveness: To be supportive, helpful, encouraging and available to myself or others
- Trustfulness: To be trustworthy; to be loyal, faithful, sincere and reliable

Competitions

2025 St Kilda Film Festival

The St Kilda Film Festival supports the Australian film industry by showcasing its best short films in a tightly curated program that includes more than 100 'in competition' works. These films, made by emerging and accomplished industry professionals, are 'in with a chance' to share in a massive prize pool; and as an Academy Awards qualifying event, award-winning films from the Festival are also eligible for consideration in the Short Film Awards and Documentary Short sections of the Oscars®. Submissions for 'Under the Radar' (St Kilda Film Festival's youth competition for filmmakers under the age of 21) can be entered here. Click here for more information and competition rules. Early bird submissions close on 31 December 2024 with final submissions due 31 January.

FlickerUp submissions deadline is Wednesday 20 November 2024. Click here for more information and entry details.

UQ Science and Engineering Challenge

The Science and Engineering Challenge is run in partnership between The University of Queensland and The University of Newcastle. It is designed for Year 9 and 10 students to foster their interest in STEM. The Challenge involves a full day of practical activities where students put their best problem-solving minds to:

- designing efficient codes to send secret messages along fibre optic rods using pulses of coloured light.
- building a strong model bridge that can support a trolley carrying 'gold' ingots from one side of a test rig to the other, and much more!

If you are interested speak to your Science teacher or Guidance Officer/School counsellor. Click here for more information. The competition will be run between 5 and 7 February 2025.

How to read an online job advertisement

An accurate reading and understanding of an online job advertisement is essential for preparing your job application. An online jobs site may have a short advertisement to attract your attention, with a link to a longer advertisement. The longer advertisement may still not provide all the information you need, particularly for public sector jobs. Following are ten critical details to note when reading an online job advertisement including:

1. Name of organisation
2. Sub-unit and location
3. Job type and status
4. Salary
5. Duties and accountabilities
6. Selection criteria
7. How to apply
8. Eligibility
9. Position/inquiries contact
10. Submitting an application and closing date

How to write a resume

Youth Central has provided a resume template to help you put together your first resume. A one-page resume is more than acceptable when you're just starting out in the world of work. You may end up with two pages but if your resume ends up being three pages long, you're probably providing too much information. Click here to find out about:

- The purpose of a resume
- How long should my resume be?
- How should I order my resume?
- Do I need to change my resume for each application?
- What your resume should include
- What NOT to put on your resume
- Reviewing your resume

Assistance schemes and Adjustment Factors

The following are the various assistance schemes that can be applied for through QTAC. It is wise to read about each scheme to see if you are eligible to apply. They all have different advantages and you may need to apply for some schemes prior to you receiving an offer. There are several government, institution and private schemes that can provide financial assistance to students:

- Educational Access Scheme (scroll down)
- Financial assistance (scroll down)

Each institution has its own student assistance schemes so it's best to access this information through individual participating University websites. Click here (scroll down) for information about the assistance schemes found on the QTAC website including:

- Special admission schemes
- Year 12 subject scheme

- Other special admission schemes

Avoid relying on online ATAR calculators

Some Year 10 and 12 students are using ATAR calculators found online to help them choose either their senior subjects or tertiary pathway for 2025. You should avoid using these calculators because they cannot accurately predict a Queensland student's ATAR or how Queensland Senior subjects will scale. No one (including QTAC and university experts) are able to produce a calculator that can accurately predict Queensland ATARs to be awarded from 2025. As always, it is recommended that you choose subjects and undergraduate degrees based on what:

- you enjoy
- you think you will achieve well in
- subject prerequisites for tertiary courses Year 10 students need for tertiary courses after leaving school

You can read about QTAC subject scaling on the QTAC website and subject scaling outcomes for students completing Year 12 in 2023.

Contacting QTAC

If you have any questions or need some assistance from QTAC you can call them on 1300 467 822. Their phone lines are open from 8.45am to 4.30pm on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday and 9am to 4.30pm Wednesday.

Do you have all your QTAC documents and numbers in a safe place?

Including:

- Your 2025 Year 12 Guide
- A copy of your QTAC preferences
- Your QTAC password
- Your QTAC reference number
- Your LUI, Learning Account password and USI.

If you are going on holidays over Christmas, especially overseas, you should take these with you.

QTAC FAQs

Q Will I get an offer for all the courses I applied for through QTAC?

A No. You will only receive one offer for your highest eligible course that you are competitive for. Therefore, it is essential to order your courses according to your preference, putting the course you most want first and having a 'safety net' course as your 6th option.

Q Will I get a letter in the mail from QTAC with my offer?

A No. If you have an offer, QTAC will notify you by email or SMS. You need to log on to your application on the QTAC website for details of your offer and to respond to your offer. Because there are numerous offer-round dates (see Course offer dates), you must check your emails regularly (including your Junk folder).

Q Is there anything I can do if I don't respond to an offer by the due date?

A Yes. Contact QTAC immediately. QTAC may be able to reinstate your offer.

Q What happens after I have accepted an offer of a course place?

A You enrol at your institution by the due date. Most institutions will have an 'Enrol here' link on the QTAC website. If there's no enrolment link, your university will contact you directly.

Q I have applied for courses that start in Semester One and Semester Two 2025 on my QTAC application. Is this OK?

A Yes, if the Semester One courses are listed before the Semester Two courses. However, a better strategy is to put only Semester One courses on your application in the first instance. After the major offer-round for Semester One courses in January 2025 (see page 19 in the QTAC book), you can put Semester Two courses on your application if you have not received your preferred offer.

Q What should I do if I don't get an offer?

A First check your application on the QTAC website. You may be ineligible for the courses you applied for. This will be indicated on the Preferences page of your application beside each course preference. Reasons for not receiving an offer may include:

- Quota restrictions (that is, your ATAR/rank did not meet the minimum threshold)
- Failure to satisfy minimum entry requirements (prerequisite subjects, audition, etc.)
- Failure to pay QTAC processing/application fee
- Preferencing your courses incorrectly (e.g. putting semester two courses before semester one courses; not including a 'good' pathways option for your 5th and 6th preferences)
- Applying after the due date for the offer-round
- Not submitting required documents
- Not responding to an earlier offer.

If you don't get an offer and none of the above points apply, contact QTAC immediately.

Q What do I have to do when I receive an offer?

A You must respond to QTAC by the due date. You usually have four days to respond. If you don't respond by the due date, your offer will lapse and your application will become inactive. When you respond to your offer, you have two main options:

- Make an outright acceptance, deferment or rejection OR
- Conditionally accept your offer so you can be considered for higher preferences in future offer rounds. If you choose this option, you must go back into your QTAC application and put your preferences back into your application.

See more information about responding on the Application Services page on the QTAC website.

If you were ineligible for the courses you applied for, you can change your course preferences for consideration in any subsequent offer-round if further offers are made. QTAC usually publishes remaining course vacancies on its website after a major offer-round. You can also contact QTAC by phone, email or Facebook for advice.

Release of Year 12 results and ATARs

Queensland Curriculum Assessment Authority (QCAA) will release students' final subject results and Senior Education Profiles on their myQCE website on Wednesday, 11 December 2024. QTAC will release students' ATARs via the ATAR Portal on 13 December 2024. You need to register for the Student Portal and ATAR Portal to find out your results.

Tertiary application reminders

Have you put important dates in your phone or diary? Including:

- Scholarship application due dates (see the scholarship page on the institution websites)
- QTAC offer-round dates (check the Course Offer Dates on the QTAC website)
- When Year 12 results are uploaded to your Student Portal account so you can access them through your myQCE Student Portal
- When QTAC will be emailing you or you can log into your QTAC ATAR account to find out your ATAR
- The last date you can change preferences for the offer rounds on 15 November, 23 December 2024 and 16 January 2025 (see Key Dates and Fees on the QTAC website or Page 19 in your QTAC book).
- Date that you must have submitted any required documentation for each offer round (Page 19 in your QTAC book)

QCE Achievement Awards certificates go online

The Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority (QCAA) will issue Queensland Certificate of Education, Queensland Certificate of Individual Achievement and Achievement Awards Commendation Certificates electronically via student learning accounts. A suggestion as to what to do if you get a mind blank in an exam

Art of Smart has an article which outlines some strategies that may suit you if you get a memory blank during exams. They say that it happens to the best of us! That's why in the video, Rowan will show you how to deal with a mind blank in an exam so that you can come back into focus and maximise your marks anyway. Click here to read about the steps including (only use these if they assist you):

- Step 1: Acceptance
- Step 2: Meditation
- Step 3: Hydration
- Step 4: Self-Talk
- Step 5: Self-Confirmation
- Step 6: Have a Plan!

De-stress with Mental Stillness

This is the time of the year when our stress levels soar. Unfortunately, stress not only affects mental and physical health but can also impact on exam performance. To help us manage our stress, Generation Next and Sydney University's Department of Psychiatry have developed a free, easy-to-use app. The Mental Stillness App provides simple guided-meditation sequences on video that can be used on demand. It can be downloaded for iPhones/iPads and there are similar apps on Android devices.

Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority (QCAA) external assessment support

QCAA are developing a suite of short videos featuring Dr Judith Locke, Clinical Psychologist to help you overcome common issues relating to study and exams. The first video, about maintaining a balanced life while studying, is available on the myQCE website and more will be added soon. You can find additional resources, including the 2024 External assessment guide, on the myQCE website.

Study skill resources

UQ's Student Services Learning website has online guides and workshops to help you with all aspects of study. While these are provided for UQ students, most of them are equally useful for Years 11 and 12 students including general study skills, exam tips, assignment writing and workshops.

Adult Tertiary Preparation Course

If you don't think you will gain entry to your preferred tertiary course or you need to meet subject prerequisites, consider completing the Certificate IV in Adult Tertiary Preparation. You can learn about this course by visiting the TAFE website.

TAFE Queensland offers more than trade courses

See where TAFE can take you by getting the qualifications that you need. TAFE offer a wide range of qualifications from Certificates to Diplomas, to Degrees, to trade qualifications all across many different industry areas. Click here to read more about the different pathways that TAFE offer.

Unilearn Ready Program

The Unilearn Ready Program can help you get a Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre (QTAC) Selection Rank or complete your Queensland Certificate of Education (QCE). Completing three subjects in 30 weeks, this full-time program is delivered entirely online, allowing you to study at a time and place that suits you. You will need to complete the compulsory core subject Academic Literacy Skills and choose two of the following elective subjects: Biology, Chemistry, Introduction to Economics, Introduction to Mathematics, Senior Mathematics, Senior English or Physics. You can watch this short video to learn more about the Unilearn Ready Program. Click here to find out more about the program and how to apply.

Alternative pathways to Uni

If you are wanting to go to Uni but don't have a tertiary rank to get you there, then click here to read about some alternative pathways to higher education. You can find out about eight pathways you may not have thought about. The article from myfuture discusses:

1. Enabling courses
2. Enabling outreach courses
3. Bridging courses
4. Special Tertiary Admissions Test
5. Vocational education and training (VET) and TAFE pathways
6. Credit for recognised learning (CRL)
7. Portfolio entry
8. VET in schools

How to decide whether to defer your course

Deferring was once sternly frowned upon. There was a fear that once you had a taste of freedom, studying would be on the backburner. Perceptions have changed significantly. It's now considered by many as a well-earned break from study and a chance to learn, grow and be better prepared for the opportunities and challenges of adulthood. With graduate employers on the lookout for well-rounded people with 'work ready' skills, it's clear why taking a gap year after school is gaining popularity. Click here for some pointers to help you think through this option.

Australian Catholic University

Don't have the prerequisites for primary teaching?

The Diploma of Educational Studies is a great pathway if you do not meet the prerequisites (English or Maths) for entry into an education course. You can complete the Diploma in one year and request a transfer into the desired initial Education course and receive full credit (apart from the unit/s that you did not have as a prerequisite/s). You can read more here about the units you would study. This is a direct application to ACU, which means you do not list it as a QTAC preference. Contact ACU for more information.

Entry schemes/Adjustment factors

These schemes can help you improve your chances of gaining entry to ACU courses through the allocation of adjustment factors. You can be allocated a maximum of 12 adjustment factors. You don't have to submit an application for most entry schemes however, some require a direct application to ACU. Read the information carefully to be sure you meet all entry requirements and application processes. The available Adjustment factor categories schemes are:

- Year 12 ACU subject program (max 5 points)
- Elite Athlete and Performers Program (EAPP) (depends on level of competition)
- School relationship program (max 5 points)
- Campus program (max 5 points)
- Campus program (max 5 points)
- Regional Schools Program (max 5 points)
- State access and equity schemes (apply through QTAC)

You are required to apply for the following entry schemes:

- QTAC's Educational Access Scheme
- ACU's Elite Athlete and Performers Program

QUT course changes

- Dance: Entry to the Bachelor of Creative Arts (Dance) and associated double degrees is paused for 2025. This will enable the Faculty to undertake an in-depth review of the dance program in 2025 in consideration of future course offerings. If you have selected this course as one of your preferences on your QTAC application, you will receive an email with this advice. QUT encourage you to explore other Bachelor of Creative Arts majors.
- Contemporary art: The Bachelor of Creative Arts (Contemporary Art) will be changed to Bachelor of Creative Arts (Visual Arts). This is a title change only and will not affect course content, structure or study plans.
- Communication/Data science: The double degree with the Bachelor of Communication and Bachelor of Data Science has been discontinued. You are encouraged to explore either of the single degrees or other double degree options with these degrees.
- Communication/Public Health: The double degree with the Bachelor of Communication and Bachelor of Public Health has been discontinued. You are encouraged to explore either of the single degrees, or other double degree options with these degrees.

2025 Provisional Entry Doctor of Medicine application update

The UQ Medical School would like to advise that invitations to interview for a place in Provisional Entry Doctor of Medicine program were released late October. You should review the advice and guidelines provided carefully and meet all deadlines. If you have not yet received an interview invitation, you should revisit your QTAC preferences, listing other courses that you would be interested in completing as a pathway to Medicine and/or different career pathway.

Guarantee your place at UQ in 2025

UQ offers Guaranteed ATAR entry thresholds across most programs in 2025. This means you may be able to secure an early position in a UQ program based on your ATAR. You'll be able to lock in your position for Semester 1, 2025, if you select a UQ program as your first QTAC preference and meet or exceed the guaranteed ATAR threshold. Some things worth noting:

- This guarantee will be assured for offers up to and including the main offer round in January 2025.
- It will also apply to eligible programs you've listed as lower preferences.
- Entry is always subject to you meeting English standards, prerequisites and any other entry requirements for your selected program.
- The guaranteed ATAR threshold includes adjustment factors (additional points added to your selection rank). UQ offers a range of admission schemes that can increase your selection rank based on special circumstances and subject choices.

Click here to learn more about adjustment factors. Click here to see the full list of degrees within this program including dual degrees.

Multiple mini-interviews (MMIs) preparation for entry in 2025 (current Year 11 students)

Multiple mini-interviews (MMIs) are used to assess your personal qualities to ensure your values align with UQ's mission and vision. They also assess other qualities, such as your:

- kindness and compassion
- integrity
- adaptability
- verbal communication skills.

To learn more about how applicants are selected for interview, visit Submit your application and select your entry type.

School Opportunity Scheme

UQ's School Opportunity Scheme can boost your ATAR by 2 or 4 selection ranks based on your school's Index of Community Socio-Educational Advantage (ICSEA) value. The adjustment aims to enhance the educational opportunities for all students. Click here to find out more including:

- Who is eligible

Worried your child won't get the ATAR they need?

For many High School students, the Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) represents their final score after 13 years of School. Whatever the outcome, a student's ATAR represents one pathway to university study. Waiting for the final ATAR score can be nerve wracking. Read the article, Does my ATAR really matter? from USC's Parent Lounge Updates about some suggestions about how you help your child navigate these times.
